

<https://a2pac.wordpress.com/>

Visit the AAPAC website for more information as well as our monthly meeting schedule. Click on the link to join the AAPAC email list (public Yahoo group site). We send out information, and questions are welcome there as well.

Ann Arbor Parent Advisory Committee (AAPAC)

Parent Information Session

IEPs: Evidence-Based Practices and Implementation Fidelity

Who: Joshua Plavnick, Ph.D., Michigan State University
Associate Professor
Department of Counseling, Educational Psychology and Special Education

Dr. Plavnick is an associate professor of special education, and director of the Early Learning Institute, which he founded in 2014. His research interests involve the development and implementation of community-based interventions for individuals with autism spectrum disorder, automated measurement of human behavior, applications of technology to behavior analytic interventions, and training educational service providers to administer behavior analytic interventions.

When: Wednesday, March 15, 2017
7:00pm – 8:30pm

Where: Tappan Middle School – Media Center
2251 E. Stadium Blvd

What: An opportunity to hear about evidence-based practices (EBPs), resources on where to find reliable information about EBPs, and fidelity of school-based implementation of EBPs.

How: Please RSVP to Heather Eckner - heathereckner@hotmail.com

This information session is open to all AAPS families.