AAPAC Meeting
(Ann Arbor Parent Advisory Committee for Special Education)

May 4, 2015
7:00 to 9:00 p.m.*
Tappan Middle School Media Center (2nd floor, west end)
2251 E. Stadium Blvd., Ann Arbor, MI

*From 6:15 to 6:50 p.m., SISS Administrators will be available to speak to parents/guardians regarding any concerns about their child's services.

Transitioning to Adulthood:

Transition Fair for Parents/Guardians of Children with Special Needs

Why Come?
This information on community resources, and options for the future, can help you make good decisions regarding students of all ages, as they grow towards adulthood/age 18.

Who will be there?
Ann Arbor Center for Independent Living (Anna Dusbiber) (Keynote speaker)
WISD Young Adult Program (Erik Thompson)
AAPS Transition Coordinator (Cheryl Brown)
AAPS Assistant Director of SISS (Sean Waymaster)
WISD Michigan Rehabilitative Services Coordinator (Wally Kwik)
Legacy Law Center, Estate Planning (Terry Bertram, PLLC)
Michigan Life Transitions, Guardianship (Viviane Shammus, PLLC)
Catholic Social Services (Steve Sheldon)
Intentional Communities of Washtenaw, Housing (Martha Bloom)

What other info can I take home?
We will have pamphlets/info from many organizations including:
State of Michigan Identification (State ID) Card
US Selective Service registration
The Differences Between a High School Diploma and Completion (Michigan.gov)
Registering to Vote (MI Secretary of State)
“Turning 18 with a Developmental Disability in Washtenaw County” (Paula Saunders)
“Transition Information Timeline for Michigan” (Autism Speaks)

Questions?

Contact the AAPAC Board at aapacexecboard@yahoogroups.com

(updated 5/1/2015)